

What are the goals?

- To develop transit options that offer an alternative to the single occupancy vehicle
- Make transit more attractive and easy to use
- Link regional growth centres and encourage transit-oriented development
- Support an integrated transportation network (including walking, cycling and transit)
- Develop an environmentally responsible solution supporting BC's goal of reducing greenhouse gas emissions
- Support a sustainable and affordable transit system

