

What is the project and why are we here?

- To develop rapid transit for the Victoria region
 - Improving Victoria's regional transit system
 - Planning in a regional context
- To improve connections to regional growth centres, major employment centres, hospitals, gateways and education centres, and to support land use strategies
- To prioritize early deliverables including a rapid transit link to the West Shore

